The story of Jesus Christ is this:
 The people of this earth waited for a Messiah...a Savior... and only God would send a little baby king. The child grew and began to question things as they were, and the man moved through his days and through this world, questioning the system of kings and priests and marketplace. He was called the New Creation, the new Covenant, the Son of God who brought to all who listened, who saw, who understood change and new life. But kings and corporations and churches of this world work very hard to keep things as they are.... And so they killed him: he who said, "Love one another," he who said, "feed my sheep," for they didn't want to share their bread and their wine. Now the story should have ended there except that the story has always been that our God is the God of the covenant. The Good News is that in spite of our faithfulness God is faithful and Jesus Christ was resurrected, for God so loved the world that God gave his only begotten Son that whoever believed might have everlasting life.
 Listen, you who have ears to hear. Listen, and sit down to bread and wine with strangers. Feed his sheep...
 love one another, and claim new life in his name. — The words of author Ann Weems.

In the running around and preparing for Christmas, I sometimes forget that the story of Jesus is really this simple. The season of Advent is my reminder that the elaborate preparations of this life, though I take joy in them, are so much more than what I actually need to receive the Savior of the world. Like the story of the angel Gabriel entering into Mary's world unannounced, I am also never ready and somehow, always ready to welcome the baby Savior into the manger of my life. God knows, my life is hardly filled with the warm, fresh hay of welcome or the sturdy foundation of hand-crafted legs leveled and grounded to welcome the Savior. More often than not, my world is a whirlwind of last-minute preparations and life hacks doing my best to cut the corners enough to get the job done and move on to what is next. It is not always pretty, but somehow God shows up anyways. I am grateful that God does indeed show up, not because I am ready and waiting, but because God's arrival is both interruption and invitation. I need God to interrupt my life. I need God to show-up unannounced to remind me that I do not have it all figured out. And when I think I have everything figured out, God reminds me that there is so much more unfolding in my life than I honor with awareness.

What I believe to be interruptions actually turn out to be invitations. God invites me to listen more carefully; reach out more tenderly; appreciate more quickly; and be present more often. I certainly recognize the expected pace of the world, yet I find when I acknowledge the invitation, I am almost always surprised with the ability of my own whirlwind of life to slow down allowing me to linger in the moment. Grateful for a conversation that brings me up-to-date or shares the ups and downs in someone's life. So very often, I am surprised that the supposed interruption truly is an invitation into someone's story.

Advent feels the same way. When I am rushing to get everything done for the birth of Jesus, the interruptions can overwhelm. When in reality, the interruptions are invitations bringing me closer to a brother or sister in Christ, and through the course of those conversations, bringing me closer to my true self. A reminder that God blesses us with the season of Advent in order that we might linger in the starlight; listen for the angel's song; and tend the cries of a newborn Savior announcing God's arrival in the world. My friends, come let us adore him.

Advent is your interruption and your invitation. Do not waste this precious gift of God. Your soul longs for both in these days of preparation.

See you in Church,

Pastor Chris

Spanish Minister Message

In November, we welcomed more Latino families to Ascension, some as new members after months of attending church here, and others newly arrived in Waukesha. Our new members have been sharing stories about conversations they've had with family and friends who question them for worshipping at a non-Catholic church.

They tell them they have been welcomed with open arms by everyone at the church, both literally and figuratively. They have been in awe of how welcomed they have been and that their children have so excited to participate in the activities that Ascension offers. The other reason they tell me and others is that Ascension is a church that is concerned with your afterlife, but it is also a church that will help you get the tools to have a better life now. This past month, I have been busy helping families refinance car loans as well as helping them learn to fill out online job and apartment applications. Most of our families were paying interest rates on car loans ranging from 15 - 21% that car dealers told them were their only options. They've been able to refinance at credit unions for less than 4%. These things are making their everyday lives easier and is a daily reminder of their gratefulness to their new faith home.

Advent and Christmas Worship at Ascension

The Hanging of the Greens, Dec. 1

On Sunday, Dec. 1 at noon, we will gather for lunch and a time to decorate both sanctuaries for the season that is coming. Interested in helping out? Give Pastor Chris a call at 262-547-8518 or email him at pc@ascensionelca.org. We can use children of all ages for this noon event.

Advent Evening Worship, Dec. 4

A new thing is happening at Ascension this Advent. You are invited to share in dinner and fellowship on Wednesday, Dec. 4, at 6 p.m. We will gather for a variety of soups and breads to welcome the season of Advent and then gather for worship to ask God's blessing on this season of expectation. We expect dinner to be a time of gathering and conversation. Worship will bring us candlelight and communion with the simple songs that lead us to the manger. If you would be willing to bring soup or bread, please email Pastor Chris, pc@ascensionelca.org, or contact the church office, 262-547-8518.

The Gift of Peace, Advent Concert Worship, Dec. 14 & 15

Choirs, handbells, praise band, and instrumentalists offer The Gift of Peace on Saturday, Dec. 14, 6:00 pm, and Sunday, Dec. 15, 8:30 and 10:45 a.m. Invite a friend and join us in concert worship.

Children's Christmas Program, Dec. 22

Come to Bethlehem and See!

The BLAST Sunday School children will share the story of Jesus' birth in worship on Sunday, Dec. 22, 8:30 and 10:45 a.m.

Christmas Eve Worship - Dec. 24

Tuesday, Dec. 24, 3 p.m., 5 p.m., 9 p.m.

Christmas Day Worship - Dec. 25

Wednesday, Dec 25, 10 a.m.

Latino Ministry Advent Worship

The season of Advent and Christmas is important to our Spanish-speaking members too and they will be bringing some of their traditional celebrations with them in addition to making new ones that are more fitted to life in the US. Regardless of whether or not you speak Spanish, please know that you are invited to worship with us to share some multi-cultural celebrations of the season. If you have Latino friends, please invite them to join you at one of these events!

Thanksgiving Dinner

On Saturday, Nov. 30, the families of our Latino ministry gathered at Ascension to share a Thanksgiving party. Our dinner was a mix of traditional Thanksgiving foods to give the families the cultural experience of knowing about a US Thanksgiving, as well as celebratory foods from El Salvador and Mexico. We played several highly competitive card games and board games before and after dinner.

Celebration of the Magnificat, Dec. 12

The celebration of the appearance of the angel Gabriel to Mary is an important part of Advent celebrations in Latin American countries. This year we will be having our first worship service where we remember the powerful words spoken by Mary when she received the news that she would bear the savior. Following the 5 p.m. worship, we will share a potluck dinner. Contact Edwin Aparicio for more information.

Las Posadas : A Latino Pageant & Fiesta of Advent, Dec. 19

The Latino Ministry will be hosting a traditional Las Posadas celebration, complete with a buffet of Salvadoran and Mexican food. Las Posadas ('the inns') is an Advent celebration symbolizing Mary and Joseph's frustrating search for a place to stay. It is common in the Spanish-speaking world for this to be a multi-day event, but we will have a short, one-evening event. Rather than going outside, we will travel throughout the building, symbolizing the Holy Family's search for hospitality, singing along the way. Once we find our welcome, we will share a meal together and bilingual fellowship, including a piñata. Please join us on Dec. 19 at 6 p.m. This year we will be taking a free will offering to support the Pulido family following their sons paralyzing fall down a staircase in February and his ten-month hospitalization. Contact Edwin Aparicio for more information.

Bilingual Worship Concerts

Because many of the Latino families participate in the Sunday School and music programs, there will be no Spanish worship on Dec. 15 and Dec. 22. Spanish-speaking members and guests are invited to worship in the bilingual concert worship services those Sundays.

Nochebuena Christmas Eve Worship, Dec. 24

We will have our Spanish-language Christmas Eve worship at 5 p.m. on Christmas Eve.

Jubilate Chorale Christmas Concerts, Dec. 7/8

Usher in the Christmas season with the Jubilate Chorale as they present A Rose in Winter on Saturday, Dec. 7, 7:30 p.m., at St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Waukesha, and on Sunday, Dec. 8, 4 p.m., at Cornerstone Presbyterian Church, Delafield. Tickets are available from Ascension members Sara VandenHeuvel, Scott Greger, and Vicki Taylor, or by visiting jubilatechorale.org.

BLAST: Thank You! Thank You!

BLAST activities can only happen when our wonderful members volunteer to be involved.

Road To Bethlehem is one of those activities. East Hall was filled with families making crafts and others just coming in to watch. The excitement created a sense of anticipation as we await the birth of Jesus. Please take a moment to thank the members who helped: Linda Blodgett, Becky Pepper, Ric Simon, Dave Williams, Bella Acompañado, Zach Acompañado, Andrew Marien, Sarah Anderson, Jennifer Werner, Karen Simington, Karen Eagan, Cheryl Werner, Kurt Werner, Pam Baumann, Pete Baumann, Beth Hoffmann and Sharon Coralline.

Thank you!

Vicki Marien & Susan Williams

The final dress rehearsal takes place in the sanctuary on Saturday, Dec. 21, from 9-11 a.m.

Be The Village Donations

This season we will have some leaves on our Angel Tree in the narthex for foster kids. We are asking for Kohl's Gift Cards for teens who time out of foster care. A big need we found was that many who time out are looking for jobs and are in need of clothing for interviewing. Our donations will go to Saint A's for these teens.

The Be the Village Ministry would like to make a difference in foster children's lives by creating awareness, education, and promotion in our community. Please join us if you have a passion for foster or adoption care children. On Nov. 6, eight members of our Be the Village Ministry attended the Open Hearts, Open Homes Gala put on by Chosen, Inc.. It is so great to support such an amazing ministry in our community and represent Ascension. We put together five baskets for their silent auction to raise money for the organization. They were grateful.

Blood Pressure Screening, Dec. 1

Are you a health professional and looking for ways to serve at Ascension? We need help with blood pressure screenings this fall, winter, and spring. We schedule once a month between services. Please contact Brenda Lytle if you can help. Mark your calendar for upcoming checks: Jan. 5, Feb. 2, March 1, April 19, and May 3.

Thank You!

I would like to thank Pastor Chris and my Ascension family for all of the kindness and care we received in the sudden passing of my husband, Dick. It is this wonderful support that is helping our family adjust to this loss.

MISSION OUTREACH

Bethlehem Market: Give the Gift of Employment, Dec. 14 & 15

Our Global Partnership Committee is sponsoring our first Bethlehem market, selling items purchased directly from artist's markets in Tanzania and El Salvador. The market is not a fundraiser for our partnerships, but a chance for you to purchase an item made by a craftsman in one of those countries, providing much needed employment. Our brothers and sisters in Tanzania and El Salvador want the opportunity to be able to support their families through their own work and we hope to offer some opportunities with this market.

Vendors

- The Tanzanian Connection
- Meru Coffee
- Salvadoran Arts & Crafts
- Jez and Xocolatisimo Chocolate
- Good Gifts Virtual Gifts

From Tanzania, we will be hosting the Tanzanian Connection, operated by Emanuel Kitoi, the son of the Meru Bishop. We will also have a larger variety than usual of Meru Coffee products. From El Salvador, we will have items purchased at local artists markets as well as items purchased from the Fernando Llorca Art Cooperative. We will have some Lutheran World Relief Chocolate that was grown in El Salvador and won awards in France for being some of the best chocolate in the world.

We will also be bringing back Ascension's own version of Good Gifts, similar to the ELCA Good Gifts or the Heifer Project. The projects we support through Good Gifts have no overhead costs, so 100% of your gift goes directly to the item. We will be offering goats, sea turtles, school lunches, and many other items.

The Bethlehem Market will take place before and after the Advent Concert on Dec. 14 and 15. The combination of the concert and the market is a wonderful opportunity to invite guests to Ascension.

OUR PARTNER: Cross Church, Milwaukee

We had a very successful meal at Cross in November. We served between 60 and 70 people. They all enjoyed the spaghetti, salad, fruit and especially the desserts so many of you provided. Thank you for your support.

On Dec. 4, we will be serving chicken, potatoes, a vegetable, salad, fruit and desserts. If you are able to help serve or bring a dessert, please be at Ascension by 9:15 a.m. on Dec. 4 as we will carpool and leave by 9:30 a.m. We usually return by 1 or 1:30 p.m. If you have questions, please contact Marge Schroeder at 414-303-0921.

Blessing Box

During December, we will be collecting all things Christmas: decorations, wrapping paper, candles, and of course Christmas treats and food. Of course snack bars are always a big hit and anything that is boxed and healthy is welcomed.

Have a Flavorful Christmas!

As you plan your holiday season meals and gifts, be sure to include Meru coffee on your list. Stop by the coffee cart to see the special gifts and flavors that are available. Don't forget the Peaberry premium coffee for those special meals. This year's special Christmas item from the Meru Coffee Project is a sampler pack for $18 and it features six drip grind sample packs, one of each: Peaberry, French Vanilla, Chocolate Raspberry, Hazelnut, Butter Pecan, and regular. Help support and celebrate 20 years of faith, love, and life.

Refugee Resettlement Award: Jo Buth

On Nov. 14, our own Jo Buth received an award from Waukesha County Community Dental Clinic for her work with the Burmese refugees in Waukesha. This annual award is given to a person/people who have played an integral role in the success of the clinic and in making more smiles healthy for some of our region's most vulnerable patients.

Jo is someone who has quietly and generously given of her time to ensure some of our area's neediest children no longer have to suffer from dental pain. Each year, Jo personally brings refugee families to the clinic to ensure they have access to dental care, nearly all of whom are receiving this crucial assistance for the first time. The work that Jo has done humbly, around the clock, for more than 20 years helps immigrant families from Burma navigate life in our communities.

Jo, together with a team of caring community members, has provided assistance to more than 112 individuals from 23 families over the years. At the youthful age of 80, she remains committed to welcoming and working with others to improve their quality of life. In reflecting on the ways she supports these refugee patients, the WCCDC dental team refers to Jo as our special "angel" and someone who gives selflessly of her time to ensure that her families have good oral health.

In addition to Jo's work with the Dental Clinic, Jo is a faithful volunteer at Ascension's tutoring program, provides constant love and support to the Burmese families in Waukesha and has helped 312 Burmese individuals walk through the citizenship process. Jo is dearly loved by the families she works with and they lovingly call her Pe Jo which is Grandma Jo in the Karen language. Jo is also dearly loved by all of us at Ascension who work with her in Mission Outreach and are proud to have her receive this award.

Some of Ascension's Mission group with Jo Buth as she received an award from the Waukesha County Community Dental Clinic.

Thank You! ~ ¡Gracias! ~ Asante Sana!

In November, San Jorge Church in El Salvador hosted a Children's Education Day using games and books gifted from Ascension. Gracias Ascension!

In Samaria, Tanzania, villagers are working Mondays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays to dig the trench for the pipeline to Savana Primary School. In addition to bringing water to the 400 students at the school, the 9 km pipeline will also provide water to Zaire and Savana villages, with a total of six water stations. There will be over 3000 people who now have access to water thanks to this project. Asante sana!

COUNCIL

I wanted to use this month's President's column to briefly discuss our Ascension Annual Meeting which occurred Sunday November 17, 2019. This year we had 65 people attend our Annual Meeting with a significant number of people from our Spanish Language Service. We were able to do our meeting in a bilingual format this year with translators for the verbal portion of our meeting and Spanish language written reports were available as well. We held the meeting in the Sanctuary this year similar to our Congregational Meeting in June.

We were able to complete the business of our church including:

1. The approval of the new budget for 2020 with a goal revenue and expenses equaling $797,910;
2. Approval of changes to the Ascension Constitution which will now include the most recent changes to the required provisions of the Model Constitution for Congregations of the ELCA 2019;
3. Election of Ascension Council members for 2020;
4. Election of Synod Assembly delegates for 2020;
5. Appreciation of outgoing leaders;
6. Review of the reports of the Ascension leadership.

I want to thank everyone who was able to attend our meeting and participate in the governance of our church and thank all who have contributed in service to Ascension over this past year.

Wishing you all the best as we enter the Advent and Christmas seasons.

May God bless you and your families,

Jay O'Grady
President of Ascension

TREASURER'S REPORT

Hello Ascension!

As of this report our financials are through the month of October and we continue to accomplish a tremendous amount of success. We completed one of the last projects for the year and as we move in the final weeks of the year, we are excited for the prospect of finishing on a positive note.

At our annual meeting we approved the budget for 2020.

Hopefully everyone has had a chance to review the inserts provided with the bulletins at recent services. Please take a moment to read through those and evaluate the goals of the church and how you and your family may be able to support those goals.

We have had a blessed year and look forward to continued success.

Thank you for your continued support!
