Thank You	6

In early January, I received a card from a friend with the following quote on the cover: “And now let us welcome the new year, full of things that have never been.” The words were written by poet and novelist Rainer Maria Rilke. The quote has stayed with me in these first weeks of this new year.

Always – there is expectation, anticipation, hope at the ending of one year and the beginning of another. It is also an opportunity to evaluate and celebrate the journey that has unfolded during the past year. There are moments when I would rather ignore, dismiss, even deny challenges that have taken their toll on me in the past year. It is far easier to imagine the days ahead anticipating happier and easier days. Yet, I am reminded that in reflecting on the past, I will often find the moments of peace and even joy in remembering where God came near to my suffering or brokenness. It turns out that our reflection on days gone by is as important as the excitement of what may come in this new year.

Many of you know, I have learned to walk a new road over the past couple of years, with an unwelcome companion, in dealing with Acute Idiopathic Recurrent Pancreatitis. More simply stated – it is pancreatitis without cause or trigger that shows up whenever the pancreas decides it needs a break. At its best, this companion is a frustration and a nuisance in my life. At its worst, it is a “take your breath away” kind of pain and an “upset your life routine” kind of schedule. Though, I like to believe I am superhuman and can tackle anything. The last couple of years have been humbling to be forced to put your life on hold to deal with a body that has an internal organ that misfires on occasion. When you are the person who so often tends the needs and suffering of others, it can turn your world upside down to be faced with the prospect of needing tending yourself. I share all of this with you because many of you have taught me how to walk with this new companion. Many of you have shared your own stories of struggle – the frustration, the anger, the betrayal of your body. I have listened to your stories and I have learned from you. I have done some listening to my own body also – to rest when a flare or episode arrives and to ask for help at the Emergency Department when managing at home is less than ideal.

What all this means, in my life, is that I can fight the episodes and push through the pain and do my best to ignore – and sometimes that is exactly what I do. And other times, I do my best to listen to what others tell me – rest, recover, renew. And in this new year – a fourth “R” is added – reflect. In the midst of the struggles over the past year, God has been present in some most amazing ways. I have had friends come and sit at the hospital with me. A pastoral assistant or two have found their way to my hospital room. My mom came to visit and after I told her she did not need to visit, she said, “Are you kidding, this is the best way to get you to myself for an entire hour!” It turns out the quote up above speaks to me for a couple of reasons. In welcoming the new year, “full of things that have never been,” I am learning to be more present to myself, to others, and to our God. When I first read the quote, I thought the “things that have never been” would be new adventures, new possibilities and indeed those experiences are always available. However, I have also learned that “things that have never been” may also lead me to moments where I am more present, more available, more attentive to myself and the world around me.

Yes, I have much to learn in this new year. Perhaps that is why Epiphany, as the season of light, offers so much possibility and anticipation. God comes into the world. The light of God overwhelms the darkness. And in reflecting on some darker days and challenging moments, I am reminded that God promises a year of “things that have never been.” Bring it on God. Bring it all on. I am ready for the road ahead. I hope you are too. Remembering all the while that God is with us.

Peace my friends. See you in church.

LATINO MINISTRY

This fall, we celebrated our first Spanish language baptism in the barn at Green Meadows. In January, we had our first baptisms in the Spanish Sanctuary. It was a special event as I baptized two adults that I have known since they were teenagers in El Salvador.

The members of our Latino ministry have begun to feel that Ascension is their second home. They love the sense of community they feel here at church and are often the last to leave after worship on Sunday. In order to build on that feeling, we are going to start having a potluck lunch the last Sunday of the month. All are welcome to bring a dish to share and join us for fellowship.

We have had more Latino families with young children join our church, so we are exploring opportunities to add an adult education time to Sunday mornings while the children are at Sunday school.

LOVE YOUR CHURCH, LOVE THE WORLD

As the world and the Hallmark Company celebrate Valentine’s Day on Feb. 14, here at Ascension we invite you to consider celebrating the gift of love in a slightly different way.

During the month of February, we are celebrating Love Your Church/Love Your World month. On the windows of the sanctuary are a variety of hearts with different items the church can use in this new year. Every heart taken – every item purchased strengthens the church budget in some way. And yes, we could just ask you to increase your giving. However, there is something to be said for the tangible moment of purchasing an item yourself to help further the mission and ministry of God through your church community.

Along with the items the church is seeking to assist in ministry in 2020, we are also inviting you to consider items that will be shared with our partner church, El Buen Pastor in Usulután, El Salvador.

Love Your Church

- | | | |
|-----------------------------|--|-----------------------------------|
| Paper towel | Kleenex | Dish soap |
| Windex | Clorox wipes | 10-pack PaperMate pens |
| Clear packaging tape | Gallon Ziplock bags | Clear press-and-seal plastic wrap |
| Yellow legal pad, 6-pack | Hand sanitizer | Post-it notes (Z-fold) |
| Box of envelopes, tape seal | Cases of paper (8½ x 11, 8½ x 14, 11 x 17) | |

Love Your World

Our goal this year is to continue to support our sister parish in Usulután in finishing their church building so they might have a safe place to worship. The hardware store project had been saving money for several years to contribute to the building. It was their hope to provide the floor. When the owner of the church’s temporary worship space was murdered and the church needed to suspend worship, they decided to use those savings for the roof instead. The church needs $4000 for the windows, doors, and flooring to fully secure the new space.

2019 Road to the Cross

BLAST Road to the Cross

Even though we have just finished celebrating the birth of Jesus and the arrival of the wise men, we have started planning for “Road to the Cross.” Mark your calendars for Sunday, March 1, when our BLAST families and the congregation will come together to prepare for Holy Week and Easter. This year we will spread our crafts throughout East and West Halls; so we can enjoy more room. Keep watching for more information.

Cancer Care Ministry —

Opening Arms to Those in Need

Our Cancer Care Ministry has six ministers who are busy assisting members of our congregation. If you know of a congregational member or family that could use some assistance walking their cancer journey, please contact Brenda Lytle at Brenda@ascensionelca.org.

Monthly Blood Pressure Screening

Did you know that one-third of people with high blood pressure don’t even know it? You can’t see or feel high blood pressure. High blood pressure puts a strain on both your heart and arteries. The good thing about this is that you can do something about it, by knowing your blood pressure numbers, eating healthier, exercising, losing weight, and quitting smoking. If your blood pressure is 140/90 or higher, talk to your doctor! Visit one of our free monthly blood pressure screenings: Feb. 2, March 1, April 19, & May 3.

Winter GriefShare Through March 24

Grief Share sessions are held Tuesday, 6-8 p.m., in the Youth Room. It will be a 12-week session facilitated by Mary Lou Charapata and Brenda Lytle. If you know someone, or have suffered the loss of a loved one and are stuck in grief, this may be a great program for you. If you or a family member or friend would like to join this program please contact Brenda Lytle.

Yoga Classes Through Feb. 10

Classes are held in the East Hall from 6-7 p.m. The great instructor is Jessica Popp from HumanKind Yoga. Bring a water bottle, mat, and get out of your house this winter to enjoy some health for your mind, body, and soul. Hope to see you there!

College Care Collection

Bring your donations through Feb. 9 for college care packages. For your child to receive a care package, please plan on participating in some way – either helping assemble packages and/or donating items or money for postage. We will assemble the care packages on Sunday, Feb. 9, from 4-6 p.m. To sign-up your child, please complete the online form (<http://ascensionelca.org/events/collegecare/>) or contact Tanya Maas.

- Homemade cookies and treats are always a favorite (please, no nuts)

Young at Heart

On Wednesday, Feb 12, we will gather at Christina's Restaurant on Delafield St. for breakfast at 9 a.m. No need to sign-up, just show up for a casual breakfast and socializing.

On Wednesday, Feb. 19, we will be gathering for a potluck luncheon in East Hall here at Ascension. Bring a dish to pass if you are able. Let's gather on a cold winter's day for food, fun and games. We meet at noon and leave when you must. Call Celeste Defenbaugh at 262-370-4522, Beth Hoffmann at 262-542-7447 or Arlene Davis at 262-542-9119 with questions.

UWM Campus Ministry

As we begin a new semester at The Corner House - Lutheran Campus Ministry, we are looking for congregational friends to help prepare and serve the meal that follows our weekly worship service at 5:30 on Thursdays. It is a wonderful way to meet some students, see what is happening with the church on campus, and possibly introduce your youth to Lutheran Campus Ministry so they can get excited about how they might keep their faith active and growing when they go to college. We need food for approximately 20-25 people. We have a full working kitchen at the campus ministry house, so you can come and prep here or bring things ready to serve. We do have several vegetarians, so vegetarian options are helpful. We currently have the following dates open: Feb. 13 and 27, March 12 and 26, April 9 and 23. Contact Pastor Rachel at pastorrachel@hotmail.com if your small group would like to sign up for a week. Last semester, we filled almost all our dates and it was immensely helpful for our food budget!

Thank you!

Dear Ascension Family,
We want to thank you for all the thoughts, prayers, cards and concern given to Dad and our family over the last couple of years. It has been a rough journey for him but we know that he is in a safe and better place.

Blessings,
The Malchow Family

CROSS PARTNERSHIP Souper Bowl Competition

It is almost here!! We can't wait for the Souper Bowl Competition. Ascension is in the game. For the sixth year in a row, Mission Outreach is sponsoring the famous Ascension Souper Bowl Competition for the month of February beginning on Souper Bowl Sunday February 2. During the entire month of February, we will receive donations of cans of soup for the Cross Food Pantry. We invite individuals, families, small groups, committees, Sunday School classes, to sign on for the challenge. We will post progress on the Mission Outreach Facebook page and announce the winner at the end of the month. Remember that every week, 200+ people from the Cross neighborhood visit the Cross Food Pantry, so if we collect 200 cans, we provide one can of soup for each recipient for one week. Cross Milwaukee is our local partnership church and we work along side them in doing ministry to their neighborhood. Let's see how many weeks of soup we can supply! What a fun way to help those in need!

2019 Souper Bowl

Cross Meal

Do you have 4 hours of free time each month or every other month? This is what it takes to be part of the team that serves a meal for our sisters and brothers at Cross Lutheran Church in Milwaukee. Just imagine what it means to have a warm, home-cooked meal when you are not able to provide it for yourself. Our next opportunity to serve is on Wed. Feb. 5th. We gather at Ascension at 9:15 a.m. to car pool to Cross and return by 1:30 p.m. Desserts are another needed item for this day. Please have them at church by 9:15 a.m. "If you do it for the least of these, you do it for Me." Our February meal will be chicken, potatoes, salad, fruit and dessert. Call Marge Schroeder or Arlene Davis for more details.

TANZANIA PARTNERSHIP: Meru Coffee News

Love to brew coffee? Our coffee kiosk would like to add emissaries to brew coffee between Sunday services. Please contact Donna Aschenbrenner, 262-968-9450 or wra@wi.rr.com, or Jessica Parent, 262-312-4715 or jessipinece@yahoo.com, if you would like to join our team.

We both want to thank Al Gilgenbach for his leadership with the Mt. Meru coffee project. We took over the duties as of January 1, 2020.

Winter Farmers Market

Sunday, March 8, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., Ascension will host its first Winter Farmers Market as a project jointly sponsored by the Food, Faith and Farming Network and the Harvest of Hope Farm Crisis Fund of the Madison Christian Community; both are non-profit organizations supporting Wisconsin family farmers since the 1980s. This event is part of Mission Outreach effort to highlight the issue of hunger in our world and how Christians can respond not only to hunger but to the needs of farmers who grow our food. The market is open to the community so we may have visitors at church on the day of the market. Please help us in welcoming them. First impressions matter.

Market products include: eggs, meat, veggies, soaps, salsas, preserves, bakery, confections, apples, syrups, cider, oats and alpaca fiber products. As a part of the market, a brunch prepared with market goods will offer: Cheesy egg bake, green salad, sausage, oatmeal with apples, cider and beverages. Tickets will be sold on Feb 16, 23 and March 1 between services. Tickets are $7 for adults, $4 children 4-10 (under 4 free) and a maximum of $25 per family.

If you have any questions, contact Lynn Parkhurst at weeziewilliams@gmail.com or see the article from the Milwaukee Journal on Ascension Mission Outreach Facebook page.

EL SALVADOR PARTNERSHIP: Chocolate News

The Salvadoran chocolate we had for the Bethlehem Market was a big hit and was sold out before we made it to the last service. St. Matthew's -Wauwatosa just returned from El Salvador and they were able to bring us some more chocolate from Xocolotissimo just in time for Valentine's Day. We will be selling it while supplies last, starting Feb. 2. While the chocolate has not gone through the process of being labeled fair trade, we had the chance to visit the cocoa farms in Usulután where the beans are grown through a Lutheran World Relief project.

We are in talks with Lutheran World Relief in partnering with them on a deeper level to create a chocolate project that is similar to the Meru coffee project. We don't know what this will mean, but they are excited to work with Ascension and the Greater Milwaukee Synod. Our delegation was impressed with the LWR's project and their dedication to economic development through environmentally sound farming practices while creating delicious, high quality chocolate.

Community Outreach Meeting

Our Mission Outreach Community Outreach group will be meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 4, at 6:30 p.m. to begin planning our Neighborhood Block Party and to discuss other ways to reach out into the community during 2020. If you are interested in these fun activities, please join us as we plan how to continue to present Ascension as the friendly church in the neighborhood. We will also be discussing ways to be more welcoming to visitors who attend events, services or special programs. Contact Shirley Wehmeier with questions.

Global Partnership Meeting

Our next Global Partnership meeting will be Tuesday, Feb. 25, at 7 p.m. in the prayer room. We will share news from El Salvador and Tanzania, talk about our plans for summer hosting, next steps in our projects, and begin planning for our May 16 spaghetti dinner and auction. Contact Sarah Aparicio, sarah@ascensionelca.org.

Small Group and Missions

Small groups have often been challenged during our church wide studies to reach out in missions either through donations or service. The TGIT group led by Jan Zastrow has actively pursued this goal. This is what they have accomplished just in recent weeks: Donated to the layette need at the Hope Center in December, ELCA Good Gifts in January purchasing two $125 micro loans and $60 for two water filters. They also pursue volunteer opportunities in the community. We are grateful for their generosity and hope that your small group or ministry will think of ways to share with others also. Contact Shirley Wehmeier for ideas on where to serve or where you can make donations and to share your success stories.

Blessing Box

Our Blessing Box has been a huge success. The goal of the Blessing Box is to offer the gift of needed supplies to our neighbors and to our members. "God blessed us so we can bless you. Take what you need and leave what you can" is posted in the box located next to the Little Free Library as a part of our outreach to the neighborhood. Many of the items that are placed in the box are taken by neighbors within a short time. During February, we will be collecting winter extras such as mittens, scarves, hats, lip balm, cough drops, tissues. Snacks and basic foods are always welcome. Place your items in the donation bin in the West Hall or put directly into the Blessing Box if there is room. If you have questions, contact Iva Richards, babuivarichards@yahoo.com.

Ascension Leadership Academy
Feb. 22

Calling all ministry leaders!

The Church Council and Leadership Development team of Ascension are preparing to gather for a ministry leadership event on Saturday, Feb. 22, from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Our hope is that all current council members, staff, wing and leg leaders, and all ministry leaders will attend this event as we reflect on the last 5 years and the completion of many of our 2025 goals and begin to prepare for 2030 Vision. Look for more information to hit your email in the coming weeks. Mark the date on your calendar! Any questions – feel free to reach out to Mary Ellen Comp, Leadership Development Leg Leader, at tellmaryellen@gmail.com, or Pastor Chris, pc@ascensionelca.org.

2020 Elections @ Ascension

Ascension is now hosting elections. If you would like to participate, please contact our poll site supervisor Tim Nekich, tnekich@gmail.com or 262-444-9225, to observe an election and learn more about elections. The city needs poll workers and you may want to consider being a poll worker at Ascension.

Election Dates: February 18, April 7, August 11, November 3.

President's Column

It is hard to believe that it is 2020.

The 2020 Council was installed on Jan 26. I hope everyone has taken some time to meet our council for this year. In February, we will be meeting for the first time, ready to work together and start an agenda for this new year.

For the months ahead, we will be putting in the newsletter, pictures and bios of council, ministry leaders and staff. We would like to give everyone a chance to put a name with our pictures and know a little about us. Have you made any New Year's Resolutions? For me, I want to see Ascension continue to grow: grow in faith, and grow in our love for God and each other. Not only inside the walls of this church but outreach beyond the walls of Ascension.

Thanks to all of Ascension in trusting your Council for this year -- we will work hard to serve God, this church and you.

Karen Simington
Council President

COUNCIL

Karen Simington

COUNCIL BIOS

Please meet some of your 2020 council members. We'll have more bios over the next few months.

President Karen Simington

I am Karen Simington. I have lived most of my life in Wisconsin. My entire career has been working in HR, payroll, accounts payable and receivable.

I have been blessed with two children, two grandchildren, three great grandchildren, and one grandbaby due in March, and one great grandbaby due in September. My hobbies are sewing, crocheting, reading, and my grandbabies. I love being with the grandbabies.

I have been a member of Ascension for 24+ years, and have been in choir most of that time. I volunteer at the Food Pantry each week. I love to serve where and when I can for our church, and have served on council for the last two years and this year as President.

Jeremy Poling

First Vice President Jeremy Poling

Jenny and I joined Ascension approximately 11 years ago and usually attend the 10:45 service where I am a member of the Praise Band. We were drawn to Ascension through friends and family who attend Ascension and have come to see the larger church body as a whole as family.

During membership classes with Frank, we were asked which body part we felt reflected our spiritual gifts best, and my response was spine: providing support to the rest of the body where God called me to contribute. Besides supporting worship in the praise band, I have been involved in supporting Ascension's Global Partnerships and traveled with the delegation to El Salvador this past summer.

I have previously been a member-at-large on council and look forward to serving as First Vice President over the coming year. I'm an engineer and currently work in the Milwaukee area. We reside in Glendale with our children, Aidan and Audrey.

Susan Otto

Second Vice President Susan Otto

I have been a member of Ascension for 16 years and usually attend the 8:30 service. Music plays an important role in my faith life and that is what drew me here, where I sing in the choir and play in the handbell choir.

I am single (no children) and although I retired from teaching four years ago, I still work occasionally as a substitute teacher. I also am involved in Wisconsin Academic Decathlon, coordinating the area's regional competition every January. I enjoy reading, knitting, attending the symphony and opera, and traveling.
